ABERDEEN, Wash. - The holiday gift-giving season is just around the corner and the Historical Seaport would like to invite you to check out exciting gift ideas at the new and improved online Ship’s Store at www.seaportstore.com. In partnership with Yahoo! Merchant Solutions, the Historical Seaport has re-launched the Ship’s Store with popular Lady Washington and Hawaiian Chieftain clothing, collectibles, and unique gifts. All purchases made through the Ship’s Store support educational programs aboard our ships.

New this year at the Ship’s Store are collectable, hand-made knives made by Billfish Art Design of Grays Harbor. These one-of-a-kind art objects feature stainless steel blades with carved handles of a variety of woods and natural materials. The knives are available in several nautical styles, including rigging knives, sailor’s knives, and survival knives. To see photos of the knives, visit www.seaportstore.com. More information about Billfish Art Design is at www.billfishartdesign.com.

In addition to knives, the Ship’s Store at the Historical Seaport offers sweatshirts, t-shirts and hats with screen-printed or appliquéd images of Lady Washington and Hawaiian Chieftain. The Ship’s Store also features special gift items, holiday ornaments, and stocking stuffers.

The Ship’s Store recommends purchase and shipping of gifts for the holidays by Dec. 18 to ensure delivery by Dec. 24.

Lady Washington is currently conducting educational programs in Pasco as part of its fall Columbia River voyage. Hawaiian Chieftain is currently in Oakland, Calif. on its fall and winter tour of California ports.
