Montesano Community Education Asks "What would you like to learn about?"

Local News

Posted by: David Haviland

Posted on : November 18, 2009 at 5:29 am

MONTESANO, Wash. - As Montesano Community Education prepares our January class schedule, we are asking for new subject ideas, additional teachers, and additional students! What would you like to learn about? What would you like to teach others? What about recreational activities? Do you have other good ideas? Contact Leticia Moody, by phone, 249-1988 or email, leticiamoodymce@hotmail.com, or by mail, Montesano Community Education, 302 North Church St, Montesano, WA 98563. We want to be YOUR community school!!

Montesano Community Education November Classes:

On November 18, Learn about Reflexology and how it can benefit your health by stimulating specific reflex points in your feet. At MHS from 7-8:30PM, $8 plus $5 instructor fee.

On November 28, Holiday wreath making with your decorations. Please bring your own gloves and wire cutters. At Cindy’s Plant Stand (Elma), 1:00PM, $8 plus $10 instructor fee.

On December 5, Evergreen wreath making with your selection of the nursery’s materials. Please bring cutters and a sharp knife. At Satsop Nursery, 1:00-3:00PM, $8 plus cost of your selected materials.

For class registration, call Leticia Moody at 249-1988. Or mail your registration form, found on the back of our Fall and Winter Class Schedule, to Montesano Community Education, 302 N Church Street, Montesano WA 98563. Class Schedules are available at most public libraries. Or drop off your envelope containing registration information and your check or money order, payable to Montesano Community Education, at the drop box location at Pickrite Thriftway in Montesano. The drop box is located at Customer Service.