Mason County Sheriff's Office Asking the Public's Assistance To Find Missing Woman

Local News

Posted by: David Haviland

Posted on : January 21, 2010 at 12:18 pm

SHELTON, Wash. - Investigators from the Mason County Sheriff’s Office are seeking assistance from the public in connection the disappearance of Jamie Renae’ Sepulveda, 33, Shelton. Sepulveda was last seen at her residence located near West Kingfisher Lane, southwest of Shelton, on January 19, 2010, at about 9:00 AM. Relatives told investigators that Sepulveda had a dental appointment in Shelton, at 10 AM on January 19, but never arrived for that appointment. Investigation also disclosed that Sepulveda had another appointment on January 20, 2010, and did not make that appointment.

Relatives told investigators that Sepulveda does not drive and relies on others for transportation. Family members told deputies that Sepulveda may have arranged a ride with an unknown female.

Jamie Sepulveda is described as a white female, 5-01, 180 with brown hair with blonde highlights, green eyes. It is unknown what she was wearing at the time of her disappearance. She may be wearing a silver panther ring with emerald eyes. Sepulveda also goes by nick names of Nae-Nae, Pinky, and Short Stack. She requires medication regularly.
If anyone has any information concerning the whereabouts of Jamie Sepulveda, they are asked to call the Mason County Sheriff’s Office at (360) 427-7761.

11/28/2009 16:01:34