Grey Gull Selected as March Business Of The Month

Local News

Posted by: David Haviland

Posted on : March 9, 2012 at 7:10 am

OCEAN SHORES, Wash. - On Tuesday, March 6th the Ocean Shores/North Beach Chamber of Commerce Ambassador Team awarded The Grey Gull hotel with their March 2012 Business of the Month Award. They are proudly displaying a large sign in their lobby showing they are an award winner.The Grey Gull hotel is located at 601 Ocean Shores Boulevard NW in Ocean Shores. You can reach them at 360 289-3381 or go to their website http://www.thegreygull.com/ . They are also listed on the chamber website http://www.oceanshores.org in the Member Directory

They Grey Gull has been a member of the chamber since 1986. They are one of the first successful condominium hotels on Washington’s west coast. They participate in the community in a variety of ways including their Manager, David Robbins helping the Chamber revitalize its Ambassador team in 2010 as a Co-Chair.

David is also the current President of HAOS (Hospitality Associates of Ocean Shores). The Grey Gull also supports with time, energy and dollars the local schools; Relay for Life; Habitat for Humanity and the Chamber’s Annual Razor Clam Festival.Other areas of interest including helping all the hoteliers in the area understand how merchant laws and employment regulations as they are updated affect their businesses. And they have hosted meetings about Emergency Preparedness over the years.When asked why the chamber is important to their organization David said, “The Chamber is the one group that ties all the Business Community together.”Please take a moment and stop by the hotel and congratulate David and his great staff on the Business of the Month award.View Larger Map