The Aberdeen Timberland Library will reopen on Monday, August 13 as planned. The library has been closed since July 30 for a facility improvement project.“All of the high traffic area improvements to the restrooms, carpets, and walls have been completed,” wrote Aberdeen Timberland Library Manager Christine Peck in an email. Additional work will be completed during regular hours including some carpet work, parking lot improvements, and installation of new HVAC controls said Peck. Library lounge furniture will be reupholstered later this fall.Patrons’ hold items—books, DVDs, CDs, magazines and other items—listed as available for pickup at the Aberdeen Timberland Library have been at the Hoquiam Timberland Library during the closure. After Friday, August 10 those items will be sent back to the Aberdeen library and will be available from Monday, August 13 through Saturday, August 18.

Aberdeen area children may finish their Summer Reading Program at the library beginning on Monday through the end of the month. A special event, the Dream Big Summer Reading Celebration, will be Tuesday, August 21, 10 a.m. to noon. There will be games, activities, and prizes as children share their summer reading stories.Open hours at the Aberdeen Timberland Library are:10-7 Monday & Tuesday10-6 Wednesday & Thursday10-5 Friday & SaturdayThe Aberdeen Timberland Library is located at 121 E Market Street.
