Greater Grays Harbor Business Forum For September: Building Sustainable, Profitable Exports

Local News

Posted by:

Posted on : September 7, 2012 at 6:00 am

Press Release

Join Greater Grays Harbor, Inc. for our monthly Business Forum, featuring speaker Joe Vogel of the Washington Small Business Development Centers discussing how your small business can profit from exporting.Joe joined the WSBDC as a trade specialist in January, 2011. Joe has 40 years of international business experience with emphasis on international market entry, export channel management, customer service and project management. His experience includes work in the Americas, Europe, Asia and Africa for emerging and established companies.Prior to joining the WSBDC, Joe provided consulting services emphasizing global channel management, customer service and support, and turnaround management. He has extensive automotive, telecom and digital entertainment industry experience. Joe began his career at Ford Motor Company where he participated in the product planning of Ford's first "world car."Originally from South Bend, Indiana, Joe has lived in Washington State since 1995. Joe has an AB in History from Indiana University, an MBA from Harvard Business School and a DBA from Indiana University. Joe is a Certified Global Business Professional.When: 11:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday, Sept. 25.Where: Aberdeen Elks, 1712 S Boone Street, Aberdeen.Reservations are required by Friday, Sept. 21: Cost is $15 for members, $20 for non-members. Leaders Circle members can send an attendee for free, call for details. Call 532-1924 or email info@graysharbor.org.