OCEAN SHORES, Wash. - The Event is to commemorate the Gallery of Ocean Shores’ 2nd Anniversary It is sponsored by the North Beach Artists’ Guild & the Seniors Sunset Times. And we invite you to stop in between 2pm and 8pm on Saturday the 15th as the Gallery of Ocean Shores is Celebrating two successful years of sharing and teaching art to the community with TASTE OF ART, featuring a fantastic sale of miniature art by North Beach Artists’ Guild members especially created just for this event.

The Gallery is operated by members of the non profit North Beach Artists Guild, the Guild is a group of artists and patrons who joined together to bring art & art education to the community. Recognizing that community life is enriched through the arts and they’re committed to the local arts community by connecting artists to one another as well as art to the public at large.

Currently showing in the gallery is a variety of mediums, from glass sculptures to stunning pottery to the most delicate watercolor you will find amazing pieces to enjoy and perhaps make your own. The art inside the gallery walls includes wearable art like jewelry and hand worked leather items all proudly created locally.

The Gallery Of Ocean Shores is located at 849 Point Brown Avenue NW in Ocean Shores and open Monday -Sunday 10:00 PM - 5:00 PM offering more than just the gallery but also drop in workshops by Roy Lowry are every Tuesday from 9am to 1pm there are multi media Saturdays 9am to 1 pm both classes are $15 each but be sure to check out the website for more specialty workshops happening soon at www.thegalleryofoceanshores .com
