6th Annual Glass Float Roundup

Local News

Posted by: David Haviland

Posted on : March 4, 2009 at 10:29 am

Starting at 8am March 21st 2009 at the Grayland Community Hall, A hunting license may be purchased for $3.00 and you will receive information on areas that the "Lucky Sand Dollars" can be found.

After you have found your marked "Lucky Sand Dollar" bring it back to the Grayland community Hall and receive your beautiful hand blown Glass Float and your certificate of authenticity.(Your hunting license will be your admission into the Community Hall.) You will need a hunting license and ID to receive a Glass Float

One Glass Float per family per address.
Local residents (Ocosta School Dist) are eligible for 20 Glass Floats. Following the above criteria.
The remaining Glass Floats will go to our out of town visitors using the above criteria.

If all the Glass Floats are not claimed by 1pm Sunday March 22nd we will put all hunting license of those in attendance at the Community Hall In a drawing and draw names until all Glass Floats are gone..

Glass Floats 1, 2, and 3 will be raffled at 12 noon on SundayOne numbered hunting license will be drawn at 2pm on March 22nd. If present at the Community Hall and have a hunting license you will be eligible to win $100.00.

All Glass Floats are numbered and Artist signed by Mark Ellinger of GLASS QUEST