RAYMOND, Wash. - The Raymond School District is seeking children ages birth to age 5 who may be in need a free screening to check their development. The screening will cover large motor development, eye-hand coordination, communication, concepts, personal-social skills, and self help skills. An appointment will be arranged during registration on April 25 and 26. The purpose of the screen is to identify any factors that may interfere with your child's learning, growth, and development. The screening is also provided to help parents identify their child's strength's and weaknesses and provide suggestions for additional help at home. Any child, birth to age five, whose family or care givers would like more information about their child's development are eligible to participate in Child Find. All school districts within Washington State have Child Find screenings available. If you family is living in a temporary situation, you may contact the district where you are staying to attend a screening.
