Moclips, WA - A Fire at the Ocean Crest Resort Restaurant this morning may have damaged Moclips heritage, at this point it is not known to what extent. Tim Dunn with the Museum of The North Beach in Moclips tells us some artifacts were being stored at the facility while the museum was being renovated. The fire was reported around 4:30, and shut down 109 traffic for several hours while multiple agencies responded Damage estimates and a cause of the fire have not been released yet.
