This weekend at Grays Harbor Raceway, in conjunction with the Grays Harbor County Fair. The Cut Rate Hobby Stock Challenge will run, that will feature the top Hobby/Street Stock drivers in the Northwest for a 40 lap $1000.00 to win feature event. The program will also include the Sportsman Cars from Banks and St Helens, Oregon as well as the Cruisers and HiLine Homes Hornets. The odds on favorite to take the win will be local driver Zack Simpson who is the defending Champion of the event, the current Grays Harbor Raceway points leader with seven main event wins in nine races as well being the track champion for the last two years in the Hobby Stock division. Simpson will be challenged by former Hobby Stock champion and current Midget points leader Brandon Daniel from McCleary. Modified driver Shawn Dorie will be driving the Celeste Hardesty Hobby Stock, as Celeste will drive her St Helen's Sportsman car. Out of town drivers expected to challenge will be Bank's drivers.

Jesse Freeman from Sherwood, Oregon, Josh Jones from Tigard, Oregon, Doug Scott from Sandy, Oregon and Dennis Krohling from Vancouver, WA.

The Sportsman Cars from Banks and St. Helen's will be very similar to the old Super Stocks from the late 90's, these will be full bodied fiberglass cars that will feature 2000 and later body styles.

In conjunction with the fair a fair/race combo ticket will be available. The front gate for the races will open at 4:30 pm on Saturday Night, with racing to start at 7:00 pm.
